

Breathe in all your wisdom child
Breathe in all you can Sit still now for just a while
Feel the power in your hands

Time has come now to find yourself and go within
Close the door to your outside world
Rejuvenation begins, go within

Got to get the project done
Got to shoot for number one
Got to work now through your lunch you're running out of time
8 hours turn to 12
Somehow you lost yourself
Life's a living hell of drowning , drowning, drowning

Chorus

Time has come, Time has come
Rejuvenation, Rejuvenation begins
