I wanna Love you like there's no tomorrow
I wanna Love you like there's just today
I wanna take you higher than you've ever gone
4 x love today , 4 x love today

I wanna Love you like there's no tomorrow
Passion falls like summer rain
I wanna fly higher than we've ever gone
4 x love today, 4 x love today

Rap J Roc Jones -

If tomorrow if I die would you take the time and cry or would you wipe away your tears and continue on with your life hopefully that day won't come because we would take the time and run to the boarder to place the order for love trust by the end of night. Right, Right

I wanna Love you like there's no tomorrow
Passion falls like summer rain
I wanna take you higher than you've ever gone
4 x love today, 4 x love today

And as I feel our souls engage in the atmosphere
That's when I see our love 's expanding crystal clear
And I say; Show me your desire Fill this room with our love
Love me Light my fire Let it burn till the sun comes up
Let it burn till the sun comes up

I wanna fly higher then we've gone
I wanna love you like there's no tomorrow
there's no tomorrow so live the moment girl

I wanna love you morning, noon, and night take your soul out for a ride 2x
All night All Night, I'm gonna love ya all night, all night Take your soul out for a ride
